

INDOOR PLANTS

IMPACTING YOUR WORKPLACE

#StayPlanted

Workplace Productivity Improvements

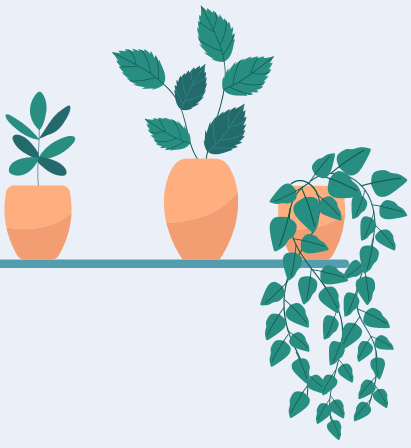

With plants present, we experience

12%
increased productivity

15%
higher levels of creativity

15%
higher levels of well-being

19%
improvements in concentration

Workplace Wellbeing Improvements

Impacts on attracting & retaining talent

33%

say workplace design influences employer selection, impacting ability to attract & retain talent

88%

of workers say access to natural indoor elements increase their wellbeing

97%

of employees would like to have more indoor plants in the workplace

Plants at work improve employee perceptions of comfort, friendliness and freshness

Green environments improve worker self-esteem and mental health

Indoor plants reduce employee stress and symptoms of depression

Workers in offices with bright light and greenery use fewer sick leave hours

Payroll costs in the workplace are 10x that of other operating expenses, indoor plants provide a huge return on investment (ROI)

#StayPlanted

sources: greenplantsforgreenbuildings.org/research